

Subject: Opportunities Available for aspiring CA Articled Assistants

About the Firm:

P. Parikh & Associates is a Chartered Accountancy partnership firm with a multi-office national footprint and growing international reach. Given the firm's legacy, size (multiple partners and offices), and variety of client types (domestic and international), an articled assistant could gain exposure to diverse assignments — from statutory audits to tax matters and consultancy etc.

P. Parikh & Associates, Kochi branch are now looking for passion driven and forward-thinking prospects who want to further their careers in specialized fields such as Statutory Audit, Taxation, Business consulting, corporate mergers and takeovers etc.

Our stipend program is designed to attractively reward the candidates - starting competitively and increasing through performance appraisals during the course of training.

The selected candidates will get exposure to the following areas during their studentship:

- Experience in statutory audit, tax audit, Tax representation, GST Matters, Consulting and special assignments
- Proficiency in Excel and Presentation skills
- Team-Work and Efficient Communication Skills
